My journey with Zylofon has come to an abrupt end; my husband manages me now-Joyce Blessing
January 2, 2019

Zylofon Music only signed gospel artiste, Joyce Blessing has disclosed on the Away Bus Show that she is no longer with the label.

She disclosed on the show hosted by Prince Dadzie aka Mr Handsome that her husband Dave Joy is the one managing her now.

According to her, all artiste managers at the music label have been asked to resign from all their positions.

Workers at the label she disclosed have been asked to proceed on leave with no reasons assigned.

Joyce Blessing said, Zylofon Music has not been supporting her career and she has been doing everything on her own.

Meanwhile, reliable information we have gathered indicates that Zylofon Music is no more in existence.

Efforts to reach top managers of the company to react to the story have proved futile.

Joyce Blessing was in the studios to talk about her latest single dubbed 'Repent'.

Danny Beatz produced the song.

The award winning songstress said it is unclear the faith of workers at the label because there is currently no activity ongoing at the label.

Joyce Blessing in 2017 signed a four-year contract with the label.

At a press briefing held at the company's premises at East Legon in Accra on Wednesday, 28th June, 2017, the Head of Communications for Zylofon Media, Samuel Atuobi Baah said the label had signed a four-year contract with the two artistes.

"We are signing a four-year deal with Joyce Blessing and Obibini. It's a complete record deal – and when I say 'a complete record deal' it includes distribution, promotion, production and marketing as well. We've also given them goodwill money that they will need for their personal running," Mr. Baah disclosed.

He added that the 'signees' had been given a brand new Hyundai Sonata car each together with accommodation. He further stated that the company would require of the artistes to produce four albums within the four year period, barring any problems.

But Joyce Blessing says her journey with the label has hit the rocks.
